

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

Mr. Joseph Jefferson as "Rip Van Winkle." Mr. Joseph Jefferson appeared last evening at the Walnut to an immense audience in his great personation of the vagabond Dutchman who let the world slide by him for twenty years without taking note of time, and then awoke one fine morning utterly unable to comprehend the fact that he was just twenty years behind the age.

The crowded house that greeted Mr. Jefferson last evening, and the raptures of the applause, indicated that "Rip Van Winkle" has obtained a hold upon the public taste which cannot easily be shaken, and that his popularity is likely to continue for an indefinite period. This is acknowledged on all sides to be one of the great dramatic triumphs of our day; it will be talked about fifty years hence as one of the good things which as yet are bestowed upon mankind in "the happy days when we were young."

Miss Susan Galton as "Marguerite." Miss Susan Galton's benefit last evening at the Theatre Comique attracted a very large audience. The performance consisted of one act of Floride and three acts of Gonod's Faust, in which Miss Galton had the valuable assistance of Messrs. Castle and Campbell, who appeared as "Faust" and "Mephistopheles." The production of Faust at this establishment has something of the comic in it, and the attempt is not to be recommended for repetition. The want of scenic and other appliances, the limited stage-room, and other deficiencies, would, under ordinary circumstances, be likely to bring such an affair to the verge of failure.

At the Academy of Music Miss Clara Louise Kellogg will appear to-morrow evening in a grand concert, under the direction of Max Strauss. Miss Kellogg will be assisted by Madlle. Allie Topich, Signor Boetti, Roma, Suptini, Barilli, and Mr. Giulio Hennig. Selections from Rossini's Moiselle Solenne will be performed, with other choice selections. Six new pieces, never given before in this city, will be performed.

On Thursday Il Barbiere di Siviglia will be presented, and on Saturday there will be a grand operatic matinee. Seats can be secured at the Academy and at Trumpler's.

At the Arch Mr. John Collins will appear this evening in the drama of The Soldier of Fortune and the farce of His Last Leap. The performance will conclude with the farce of Sarah's Young Man. On Monday next a new drama, by Willie Collins and Charles Pecker, entitled Black and White, will be produced. Report speaks very highly of this piece, which will be placed upon the stage with great care.

At the Walnut Mr. Joseph Jefferson will appear this evening as "Rip Van Winkle."

At the Chesnut the burlesque of The Judgment of Paris will be performed this evening, and William H. Donaldson and H. Gilbert will make a velocipede ascension on the tight rope from the stage to the gallery.

At the Theatre Comique Miss Susan Galton will appear this evening in Pierrette the Cyclist.

At the American the De Lave sisters, not having proved themselves first-rate artists in the opinion of the management, have been withdrawn from the evening an attractive variety programme will be presented, which will combine a great number of entertaining features.

At the Chesnut Street Rink a grand velocipede carnival and masquerade will come off this evening.

CITY ITEMS.

CHARLES STOKES, No. 211 Chestnut Street.

THE WHITE HOUSE.—The beautiful concert grand piano, selected eight years ago by Mrs. Lincoln for the White House, is now at the warehouses of Messrs. Schomacker & Co., No. 1101 Chestnut Street, where it may be seen and heard by those who may call in there.

This firm received the order from Mrs. Grant to furnish the new instrument, and which was placed there several weeks ago, and the one selected by Mrs. Lincoln was brought back to their warehouses.

All lovers of music and admirers of fine arts should call and see this instrument. It has become historic and will be retained as a relic, independent of this, it is the finest specimen of workmanship that has ever been turned out, and the finer superior to any instrument we ever heard, as though its use had only improved its musical notes.
